ROBERT JAMES SALON CELEBRATES REOPENING WITH RIBBON-CUTTING CEREMONY

WHO: Riverhead Town Board

WHAT: Ribbon Cutting Ceremony at Robert James Salon

WHEN: Thursday, March 3 – 3:00 PM

WHERE: 134 E. Main Street, Riverhead, NY

DETAILS: Supervisor Sean M. Walter announced that members of the Riverhead Town Board and other town officials will hold a ribbon cutting ceremony to celebrate the re-opening of Robert James Salon at its new location at 134 East Main Street.

The new, 2,100 square foot store is located in a portion of Woolworth building and is approximately 1/3 of the size of its former location across the street. Owner Ray Pickersgill said construction took approximately two weeks. He said that the smaller facility was necessitated by economics. "We simply had too much space in the former location based on current demand for services," said Pickersgill, who also serves as Business Improvement District President. "We have a strong, unwavering commitment to downtown Riverhead and believe that the revitalization of the business district will continue. This new store allows us to remain in Riverhead for the long-term to serve residents and visitors to downtown Riverhead for years to come."

"On behalf of the town board, I wish to congratulate the Pickersgill family on opening Robert James Salon in its new location. Ray and his family have indeed demonstrated that they continue to believe fully in the ongoing resurgence of downtown Riverhead," Walter said.

The Robert James Salon is open Tuesday through Sunday. Their phone number is 631-208-8155.
