COUNCILMAN DENSIESKI offered the following resolution, which was seconded by COUNCILMAN LULL.

WHEREAS, on April 14, 2003, FRP Development Corp. presented a proposed project to the Riverhead Development Corp. involving 120-130 acres at the Calverton Enterprise Park for the purposes of development of a theme park, hotel and go-cart facility at a price per acre of $50,000; and

WHEREAS, on June 16, 2003 the Riverhead Development Corp. passed a resolution recommending that the Riverhead CDA Board pursue timely negotiations with FRP Development Corp., while continuing financial due diligence and incorporating performance criteria in the sales contract;

WHEREAS, on July 3, 2003, the RDC Chairman and the CDA's real estate broker recommended to the CDA Board that the town initiate preparation of a sales contract in order to further the proposed project; and

WHEREAS, the Town Board determined that in furtherance of the recommendation of the RDC and given that the uses incorporated in the proposed project are consistent with those permitted in the Planned Recreational Park District and recommended in the Comprehensive Reuse Plan, the price offered is supported by the real estate appraisal completed by the Landauer Realty Group in October 2002, and the acreage requested is available in the PRP area of the Calverton Enterprise Park, the progression to contract negotiations would be advantageous to the Town of Riverhead and to the applicant.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the CDA Board hereby authorizes the Town Attorney to prepare a real estate sales contract for the sale of 120-130 acres of property at the Calverton Enterprise Park, currently owned by the Riverhead CDA, to FRP Development Corp.; and
