(See page 712.)

1842, 1845, 1848, 1851: JURORS LISTS

[These four lists are contained within one booklet. The booklet itself is of particular interest. It was printed by O. O. WICKHAM, BOOKSELLER AND STATIONER, SAG-HARBOR, L. I., and is the only one of the surviving booklets of Riverhead records bearing a Long Island imprint.

The reddish-brown front cover features the Seal of the State of New York.* The back cover illustrates an Octagon, Pentagon, Isocoles Triangle, and other geometrical shapes. At the top of the back cover are pictured a straight and a leaning tree with the motto: Just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclin'd. The paper in the booklet is unlined and unwatermarked, 6¼" w x 7¾" h.]

1863 JURORS LIST

[This is written in a "writing book" of lined, unwatermarked paper 6¾" w x 8½" h. The green cover is decorated with an ornamental border of fruit, leaves, tendrils, and several small scenes, three of which show classrooms with boys or girls with a teacher. The border surrounds a group of larger figures of school children, including one with a dunce's cap, and the words WRITING BOOK Written by ———. The same ornamental border is on the back cover where it surrounds a view of a building marked L.S. Learned and this advertisement: L.S. Learned's Manufactory, Cambridgeport, Mass. Established 1840. Paper and Account Books, Manufactured To Order, of Every Description. Job Printing Executed with Neatness in All Varieties. Constantly on Hand an Extensive Assortment of Paper, Account Books, Envelopes, &c. Orders answered promptly, Goods delivered free of freight, and warranted satisfactory.]
