DETAILS: Tom and Leslie Drake are pleased to announce the grand opening of their new restaurant located in the heart of Polish Town in the former Doc's Tavern. The building, which has been closed for 12 years, has been totally renovated to house two dining rooms capable of holding functions of up to 30 people.

The Drake's are the former owners of Meeting House Creek Inn in Aquebogue who had the restaurant for 26 years. Their new upscale pub-style grille features signature burgers and sandwiches, fresh seafood, chicken, pasta and steak dishes. Everything is made on premise and Leslie's desserts are well known. There is a large bar with happy-hour every day from 3:00pm to 7:00pm featuring reduced price drinks and bar food choices. They are open daily from 11:00am and have lunch and dinner specials daily.
